

Across

- 1 Mammal hunting half curtailed in flight. (7)
- 5 "You and 'er in a heap!" Childish. (7)
- 9 Grand, possibly about time for knocking back whiskies? (5)
- 10 Irish queen not hard to confuse with questions. (9)
- 11 This might be said during tennis point after publicity. (9)
- 12 Prohibition about to stick? (5)
- 13 Extreme characters in consecutive notes leave a stupor. (4)
- 15 Setter's compassion about old city's lack of virtue. (8)
- 18 Top cat in fringes of jungly danger. (8)
- 19 Next quarterly heraldic Irishmen. (4)
- 22 Hide shot of drink. (5)

24 Wife makes loaf around the right hour. (5,4)

- 26 A full stop in column. Not regular! (9)
- 27 Silt from river edges swirling, but lacking energy. (5)
- 28 Make his mark with a province. (7)
- 29 Stretch of glen I entered was easy. (7)

Down

- 1 Clip back winged creature - a marsupial. (6)
- 2 Calm setter's returning worried after all. (9)
- 3 Norwegian writer is embracing book space. (5)
- 4 Soldier rereading orders. (9)
- 5 Sneak a look, by the sound of it, and create vexation. (5)
- 6 Inquiry about noise and dirt when returning from the city. (9)

7 Find pig out every now and then. What a twit! (5)

- 8 Stormy sea on meadow is getting less windy. (6)
- 14 Turn in phone I used with hesitation for instrument. (9)
- 16 Clairvoyant, fashionable in riddled plays. (9)
- 17 Wet East Asian, perhaps? (9)
- 20 Fit article on temperature with nail. (6)
- 21 Compensate for bad TV. (6)
- 23 Roots of poles around backwater. (5)
- 24 Start of summer becomes old stranger. (5)
- 25 Element central to party created under brown banners. (5)